So, it was September (of last year) when I was just dead bored. So some ideas just sprang up. One of them started when I thought, "scanlating groups always have newbies that are willing to learn editing manga from scratch. Then I wonder.. 'What if I teach basic Japanese just for translating manga?'"

So I tried, started with a few applicants; six, sevenish. Every month, a few would just disappear without a single "fkdisshyt, imout" or "imsorry,ihatejapnow." However, there was one that just held on there. Just kept on learning with that motivation to learn Japanese.

Interbling.

This chapter is his (gender based on "internet default") first chapter, and I would like to congratulate him for the hard work and yelling (from me) he went through.
Good job.

We're Recruiting!

Maybe we haven't made ourselves clear to all those extra readers. We're recruiting (esp. experienced editors with past work experience (obviously)). We could use another typesetter around also for various projects.

One more condition if I may say so:
Be at least committed (for crying out loud).
Oh, and be available and active until now to mid-August.
